THE EXPECTED HAS HAPPENED.

Secretary of State Bryan tendered resignation and the same was accepted by the President. Mr. Bryan did right in resigning and the President did right in accepting the resignation. They differed on what should be the best policy for the United States to pursue in the matter of the Lusitania. On so grave a matter, when differences of opinion arose, it was but right that Mr. Bryan should give way to the President. He could not compromise his own well known policies of peace by signing a paper which he believed might involve this country in war. Therefore, he did the magnanimous thing when he resigned and got out of the way of the President.

The question is one fraught with many difficulties and pregnant with great danger. Surely the advocates of peace at any price and the hot heads who talk war but who have no intention of fighting, could find some middle grounds on which to stand.

England would be glad to have us come in and help destroy Germany. Germany would be glad to have us come in and help to destroy England. All Europe would be delighted to have us in this fight. Will we be wise enough to stay out?

We should have no entangling alliances with any foreign power. Looks very much to us like we are getting under the spell of evil English influence.

Secretary Bryan is being roundly lambasted by some of the press for tendering his resignation at this time and it is claimed that it will give to Germany an impression that her position is finding support in this country. But when was the imperial English edict issued denying Germany friends in this country?

There are two sides to this Lusitania question. One is the English and the other the German side. America should not be too quick to accept the English version. At least Germany is entitled to be heard.

Personally, we believe that there is nothing to excuse the murder of 1500 non-combatants—innocent men, women and children.

We are neither the apologist of Bryan nor the advocate of Germany. But when the sober judgment of the country is expressed, the Bryan policy will find much favor.

In our humble judgment there is nothing in the note issued by the President that Mr. Bryan could not consistently sign. The note is an able document, couched in decorous language and certainly represent the best thought of America. The position of Secretary of State is not, as we understand it, an office independent of the President and Cabinet. It is the avenue through which state papers are issued and in this view of the matter it was the duty of the Secretary to sign the paper although he may have thought it pitched on an erroneous plane. But the larger question between Mr. Bryan and the President, that is their difference as to what the policies of the government should be, was the actuating cause of the resignation and when Mr. Bryan conscientiously differed from the President on these policies, it was his duty to sever the relations. We see no room for the censure of any one. Certainly President Wilson has not censured Mr. Bryan. On the contrary he has said of him many complimentary things.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

TELL THE TRUTH.

The liquorites are inserting paid advertising matter pretending to give a comparison of Kansas and other States that have statewide prohibition and that this statement is not truthful we have only to give to our readers what Gov. Capper, of Kansas, has to say about this matter. WE WANT IT DISTINCTLY UNDERSTOOD THAT WE REFUSED TO CARRY THIS MATTER AS A PAID ADVERTISEMENT OR AT ALL. Our reasons for so refusing are that we stand unqualifiedly for the best that is in man, the best that is in government and the best that is in the sacred family relation. If we can't run a newspaper without taking paid advertising matter, the object of which is to aid the Liquor Trust and debauch the people, we will quit the paper. It will either be a decent paper or none.

Here is what Gov. Capper says: "As a result of Prohibition, the annual expenditure for liquor has been reduced from $21 per capita, the average in the United States, to $1.23 in Kansas; illiteracy among Kansas people has been reduced to two percent—the lowest in the United States. There are 48 counties which did not send a prisoner to the penitentiary and 87 counties that did not send an insane patient to the asylums last year, more than a dozen Kansas counties have not called a jury in ten years to try a criminal case; 53 counties were without prisoners in their jails; 28 counties without paupers in their almshouses; the Kansas death rate is the lowest in the world—seven and one-half for each 1000 persons; there are more students in the Kansas colleges and universities in proportion to population than any other State in the Union; the bank deposits in ten years have increased from $100,000,000 to more than $200,000,000. Kansas with a population of 1,750,000, has as much wealth as Chicago with a population of 2,500,000, and the per capita wealth of Kansas is the greatest of any State in the Union—approximately $1,700 for every man, woman and child in the State.—Christian-Evangelist.

If the people of Kentucky are given an opportunity to vote on this State-wide Prohibition question the Governor of this State will be saying something similar about old Kentucky in ten or twelve years from now.

Why stay at the foot of the list intellectually and at the top of the list in unadulterated Hell works—the liquor traffic.

THE BEST ARGUMENT.

One of the best arguments in the matter of statewide prohibition is contained in a news item on page eight of this issue. Read it, study it carefully and then ask yourself this question, "Can any argument be made in favor of the whisky traffic?" In this pathetic case, a father who had reared his children to manhood, was compelled to take the life of one and wound the other in order to protect himself from their drunken assault. Who is guilty in the eye of good conscience? Answer: The whisky dealers. Purely for gain, they sell to a man that which steals away his brain. There are men in this country who advocate the manufacture and sale of whisky. There are members of the church who do this. Are there any church members who are "putting the bottle to the lip?"

Any church officers? Any PREACHERS?

The article is entitled Father's Gun, etc.

AND MAYBE THEY CAN.

One-third of the people think they can beat the lawyer expounding the laws. One-half think they can beat the doctor in healing the sick. Two-thirds of them think they can put the minister in the hole expounding the gospel, and all of them think they can beat the editor running a paper.

POLITICAL PROPHETS.

Some of the liquorites at Frankfort are predicting that Stanley will get sixty per cent of the vote in Madison county in the coming August primary. We are not much of a political prognosticator but we don't think that Mr. Stanley will be very much in evidence when the people come to vote in this county. A vote for Stanley is a vote for all for which the Whisky Trust stands. He is no more for the County unit bill than he was years ago. He is opposing Statewide prohibition and his pretended advocacy of Local Option and the County Unit bill is farcical in the extreme. He is for the Whisky Trust where he has always stood. A vote for him is an endorsement of the Whisky Trust.

Mr. Stanley fought the County Unit bill at the last Democratic convention.

McDERMOTT SPEAKING.

LI. Gov. McDerriott who is a candidate for the office of Governor, made two splendid addresses in this city Friday. First he spoke at the Normal School to the graduating class where his oration was pitched on a high plane and was well received by the class and assembled people. In the afternoon at the court house, he spoke to a well filled house on the political question of the day. He is a pleasant speaker and made a good impression. He urged the people to be conservative and not go to either extreme in politics and to support him for the reason that he had done much towards directing the political questions of the day and, which, so far as he knew, were giving satisfaction.

WHAT DO YOU KNOW?

Do you know that an editor or a reporter for a newspaper can in his rounds stop and ask a hundred persons "what is the news?" and ninety out of the hundred will reply, "Nothing special," and yet fifty out of that number know something that, if not found in the next paper, will astonish them greatly and disappoint them more, and perhaps make them madder than hornets. Don't be afraid to let the newspaper man know it.

"Liquor Lies Live Little Longer than Lilies in Lime," exclaims the Winchester Democrat. That's right; give 'em L.—Cynthiana Democrat.

"The Confederate Veterans, in annual reunion at Richmond, Va., adopted the following resolution:

"The United Confederate Veterans, in the twenty-fifth annual reunion assembled, at Richmond, Va., sends greetings to Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States. As soldiers who know only too well the horrors of war, and as citizens of a re-united country, we are glad at heart that we have at Washington a President who, strictly neutral between warring nations, will, with wisdom and courage, stand for all regard and respect for the honor of the American flag and a proper observance of the full rights of the humblest American citizen."

The race for Circuit Judge in the Clark-Jessamine-Madison-Powell district between Judge J. M. Benton, of Winchester, and Judge W. R. Shackelford, of Richmond, is almost as hot as the contest for the same office in this district.—Mt. Sterling Sentinel.

Caldwell Commencement.

On Wednesday evening June the ninth the Commencement exercises of Caldwell High School were held in the auditorium.

The platform was beautifully decorated in roses and palms and formed a lovely background for the ten handsome graduates, eight young ladies dressed in white and carrying bouquets of white roses and the two young gentlemen. These were Misses Maud Elizabeth Holton, Lucile Francis Buckley, Henry Ethel Lisle, Hazel Sam Abell, Mary Lillian Broadbent, Katie Bates Smith, Edith Steadman Mellinger, Catherine Freda Powers, and Messrs. Nelson Grauman Elder and Joe Giunchigliani, Jr.

The exercises opened with fine music by the High School Orchestra after which Dr. R. L. Telford pronounced the invocation. The speaker of the evening, Dr. A. S. Mackenzie was introduced by Prof. D. W. Bridges in his genial, kindly manner, and the speech which followed "A Few of the Secrets of Success" more than surpassed the nice things which had been said of him.

The evening then closed with the presentation of the diplomas by Prof. L. S. Robbins.

Men Who Chew Are Men Who DO

LOOK at Woolworth's, New York, the world's tallest building. Each of its fifty-one stories was a "job" that required clear thinking, accurate action—the highest mental and physical powers. And the majority of the men engaged in the work were tobacco chewers.

Wherever buildings are being erected you'll find men chewing and boosting STAR, the great American tobacco.

STAR makes their thinking easier, their labor lighter and their leisure moments more pleasant.

You'll like the thick, tasty STAR plug that gives the utmost in mellow chewing satisfaction. You'll find each bite as good as the one before; you'll find that a STAR plug won't dry out like a thin plug and you'll find that the honest weight—each plug a full 16 ounce pound, all the time.

So many men who "do" are men who chew STAR that one day's output would build a STAR plug as high as the Woolworth Building and 23 feet broad.

Big Day at Boonesboro.

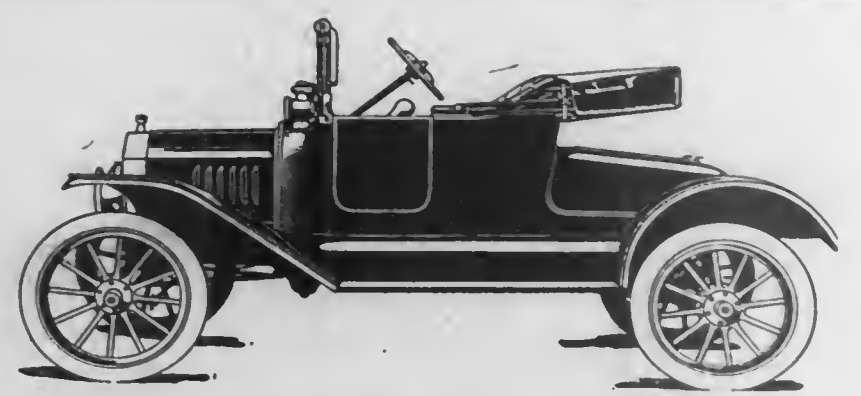

Last Thursday the members of the Madison-Clark County Fish Fry Association, composed of the doctors, lawyers, druggists and dentists, met at Boonesboro and held their annual fish fry. Dr. D. J. Williams, president of the Association and owner of the historic grounds, had made ample arrangements for the affair and it was a grand success. The meeting was called to order at 1 o'clock and more than one hundred and fifty persons from the above named professions and their friends, from Madison and Clark counties were present and to do justice to the feast. There were plenty of Kentucky River perch, cooked brown and crisp, tomatoes, onions, pickles, bread, sulphur water and other liquid refreshments and cigars for each and all. Lieutenant-Governor R. J. McDermott was on the ground and delivered a short address, coming over from Winchester and returning in the afternoon and addressing the voters of Clark.

After dinner the assembly was invited for a boat ride on the classic stream, which was hailed with delight. A gasoline boat and commodious barge was used to accommodate the crowd, which was taken quite a distance down the river. On board the boat Dr. J. A. Snowden introduced Judge W. R. Shackelford, who made an eloquent address, which was witty and logical. Mr. Frank Leslie Russell was the next speaker introduced, and he did ample justice to the occasion. Dr. Francis, of St. Louis, was introduced, and in a masterly style charmed all who heard him. Dr. Zinke was the next speaker and captivated his hearers. Atty. G. P. Jackson followed Dr. Zinke. He said he believed he had heard the next Circuit Judge speak, and he was sure he had listened to the next representative of Madison county, referring to Judge Shackelford and Mr. Russell, respectively. Two pictures were made of the group on board, and numerous other pictures at Boonesboro.

The day was a gala one and will long be cherished in memory by those present. The splendid success of the meeting was due to the untiring efforts of Dr. A. D. Williams, president, Dr. John A. Snowden, secretary, and Dr. J. G. Bosley.

LIEUT. GOV. McDERMOTT

Delivers Commencement Address at E. K. S. N. S.

Thirty-four Young Men and Women Secure Life Certificates.

The Eastern Kentucky State Normal School held its commencement exercises on the campus Friday morning at ten o'clock. Lieutenant Governor Edward J. McDermott was the principal speaker and delivered the graduating address to the class, the subject of his address being, "Some of the Opportunities and Tests of the Public Teacher."

Mr. McDermott was introduced by President J. G. Crabbe, of the Normal, who said in part:

"It is an honor today for Eastern Kentucky State Normal School to have on its Commencement day one of the highest dignitaries of the State of Kentucky, who comes to us to deliver our commencement address. There are politicians and politicians. To those of you who know the speaker, you will know you have found in his entire life a decided touch of scholarship and of statesmanship in all of his political work. The truth is, he is a statesman. You will find in him a man of high character, of scholarship, of ability, of efficiency and of statesmanship."

In his introductory remarks Gov. McDermott expressed his pleasure in having the privilege of delivering the commencement address at Richmond, paying a beautiful tribute to his friends Governor James B. McCreary and Judge J. A. Sullivan, who reside in Richmond. He referred with pride to the work of Judge Sullivan along the line of better education in the State.

In speaking of the influence of the teacher in the community, Mr. McDermott said in part:

"They have great opportunities and great responsibilities and duties and I hope they will always be able to enjoy and exercise them thoroughly. In the first place, they have an immense influence on the children, and through the children an influence on the whole community, whether they know it or not. Their talents are noted by their pupils and if they are not efficient, and do not understand their work, there are some advisors in a large degree both to the students and the families and ought to act accordingly."

"The purpose of the teacher is not merely to make brighter, but better men and women. There are some people who have the foolish notion that education is to take the place of religion. Before the French Revolution, Payne and others took the stand that the world would soon not need religion and in one of his work's Payne said, 'In seven years there would be a king in Europe.' More than a hundred years have passed and there are nearly as many kings in Europe as there were at that time."

Mr. McDermott urged that the graduates continue their study after leaving the school and keep abreast of the times. He dwelt at length upon the methods of keeping up in the work, advocating the intelligent reading of good books in preference to the idle reading of questionable literature. In closing Mr. McDermott said:

"I therefore congratulate these teachers and this institution. I congratulate the State that while we are thinking of building railroads, while we think of building up other necessities of the State, we are not unmindful of helping the cause of education, so that there shall not be in our midst a single adult who cannot read or write, and not a child rich or poor, who shall not have an opportunity, and that Kentucky may not only prosper materially, but may shine also brilliantly for highest achievement in all—in poetry, in prose, in painting, in sculpture, and in everything that tends to refine and elevate men so that they may rise like human beings with immortal souls and may know what it means, this old existence of ours, and may enjoy all pleasure of it in a moral, refined, life."

Certificates were presented by Senator H. M. Brock, a member of the Board of Regents, to the thirty-four graduates. Senator Brock impressed the teachers as to their duty to the Normal and to the State.

An Alumni address was made by Superintendent O. H. Harris, of Winchester Ky., member of the class of 1913. He dwelt at length upon the work the graduates are doing in the field and their debt to the school. List of graduates follows:

Rebecca Jayne Barnett, Betsy Bowen, Leland Cook, Albert B. Crawford, Cornelia Leach Duffy, Mollie T. Evans, Minnie Elizabeth Farley, Ida Mae Galey, Elynn Christine Gilbert, Keener C. Goodman, Daisy Hampton, Lella Jane Harris, Surrella Holliday, Katherine C. Hickok, Hannah Jane Hearn, Eula Belle Land, Eva Liles, Ella Liles, Maud Alma Lutes, Ama Dillingham Maupin, Madge Mae McPhillips, Pannie Moyers, Rebekah A. Phillips, William Richie, C. E. Smith, Clara Louise Vogel, Saline Wade, Forest Ward, Bess White, Alice E. Watkins, Belle McMurphy Walker and Margaret M. Yates.

Wheat Growers Meet.
At a called meeting of the wheat growers of Richmond county, held in the Court House at Richmond, June 12, a committee was appointed to draw up resolutions in the form of an agreement to be submitted to the growers at 2:30 Saturday, June 19 for adoption.

It was the sense of a meeting that a pooling agreement be formed for the purpose of securing the market price for wheat this year on Cincinnati quotations. With a full attendance of the large and small wheat growers of Madison at the meeting, June 19, it is believed that an equitable marketing price will be obtained for the 1915 crop of wheat in this market. All wheat growers are requested to be present and discuss the matter.

Kean-Sellers.

A marriage of great interest to many people is that of Miss Marion Logan Kean to Captain Sandford Sellers Jr., of Missouri which was solemnized at Burnamwood the home of the Hon. T. S. Barnam, uncle of the bride.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Lillian Logan Kean and a grand daughter of the late Dr. J. V. Logan for so many years the beloved President of Central University of Kentucky and comes of distinguished Revolutionary ancestry. She is an honor graduate of the Institute of Musical Art of New York City and is a musician of extraordinary ability while her brilliant social gifts have made her a universal favorite.

Captain Sellers who made a record at the University of Chicago, is now associated with his father, Col. Sandford Sellers in the administration of Wentworth Military Academy. He is a man of commanding presence and character.

The Colonial hall of Burnamwood was decorated in masses of rhododendrons while the drawing rooms were festooned with pink roses, honey suckle and white hydrangea.

The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. V. Logan D. D. of Middleboro, Ky.

Immediately preceding the ceremony, Miss Jamie Caperton sang with tender feeling Grieg's "Love Theme" and the Barcarolle from the "Tales of Hoffman" accompanied on the harp by Miss Telford, after which was rendered, "O Thou Divine Sweet Evening Star," played by the talented harpist, Miss Telford.

To the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, rendered by violin, harp and cello, there entered first in the bridal procession the ushers, Messrs. Robert C. Logan, of Louisville, MacBrayer Sellers, of Lexington, Mo., Thompson Burnam and Logan Burnam, of Richmond. They were followed by little Miss Lillian Logan Burnam, flower girl carrying a basket of pink roses and maidens fern.

The brides maid, Miss Elizabeth Sellers, of Lexington, Mo., Miss Lillian Logan, of Middleboro and the maid of honor, Miss Caperton, wore white tulle dresses and carried bouquets of Killarney roses.

Captain Sellers entered accompanied by his best man Mr. Milton Welsh, of Kansas City.

The bride came in on the arm of her mother who was equally winsome and lovely. The perfect rhythm of their intimate and happy life together seemed expressed in their gentle and gliding step as they advanced.

The bride's gown of white tulle with tulle bodice was lovely in its simplicity. Her veil, as befitting her youth was of tulle fastened with sprays of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Kean was attired in an empire robe of white crepe de chine and lace, and carried a sheaf of madonna lilies.

The following beautifully engraved announcement cards have been received by friends of the family:

Mrs. Lillian Logan Kean announces the marriage of her daughter Marion Logan to Captain Sandford Sellers, Jr. on Tuesday, June the eighth Nineteen hundred and fifteen Burnamwood Richmond, Ky.

Junior Barge Club Gives First Dance of Season

Ideal weather and a record-breaking crowd were features of the barge dance given last evening by members of the Junior Barge Club, this affair being the first entertainment in the series planned for the summer months by the organization. The crowd left the city at 8 o'clock and returned at midnight, making the trip on the "Helen M."

Mrs. Thomas J. Smith, Mrs. James Garrett, Mrs. Roger Burlingame, Miss Clara Scott and Mrs. B. G. Williams were the chaperones.

The following are some of those who enjoyed the evening: Mr. Aaron Coates and Ruth McChesney, Mr. John W. Gaines and Miss Alice Hobson, Mr. A. Addames, Jr. and Miss Elise Smith.

President's Reception

One of the most elaborate and beautiful functions of the week was the President's Reception and Promenade Concert given on Thursday evening from eight until eleven o'clock on the Campus. The front portico of the Model building was covered with stately palms and ferns which verted the place into a very forest of green, while here and there the softened lights from many lanterns shed a radiance over all.

In the receiving line were: Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Crabbe, Mrs. Mary C. Roark, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Burnam and Dr. and Mrs. E. C. McDougle.

In the circle in front of the building a large round table was placed in the center of which was a tall urn filled with lilies roses, daisies and sweet peas, (the class flower). At the base of this a number of tapirs were burning, surrounded by rose buds and leaves.

On the outer edge of the table small handmade baskets were filled with sweet peas which were pinned on the guests as they were served.

The laces, bon-bons, and individual cakes were in the delicate shades of these flowers. In booths made of snow balls, leaves and wisteria, frappe was served by Messrs. Dilling, Hansen, Hemplepp and Miss Kee.

Others who assisted Dr. and Mrs. Crabbe in entertaining were: Prof. Culbertson, Mrs. R. E. Turley, Mrs. C. H. Vaughn, Mrs. S. B. Hume, Miss Heverly, Miss Bessie Miller, Miss Gibson and Miss Isabelle Bennett, Bessie Telford and Sue Chennault. Throughout the evening, lovely music added to the pleasure of the assembled guests.

Alumni Banquet which celebrated its seventh anniversary on Friday evening at Sullivan Hall. The welcome address was given by Mr. O. V. Jones 1910 and Mr. A. B. Crawford '15 responded. The spacious dining room was lovely with fragrant flowers and dazzling lights. Three long tables were placed near the room and these were exquisitely decorated with baskets of pink roses and sweet peas. Mr. Chas. A. Keith acted as toastmaster and did the honors right royally; with quick repartee and ready with he enlivened the hours with laughter and good cheer. His subject was "Life's Little Adversities."

Those who responded to toasts were: Mr. Homer Reid who took the place of Mr. Neace of the class of 1910 and gave "Life's Little Hints," Miss Heverly, "Life's Little Pleasures," J. Warren Chrisman, 1914, "Life's Little Frivolities." The last toast was given by Mr. T. H. Pickels, "Life's Little Bygones"

The Banner for attendance was won by the class of 1912, 23 per cent of the class being present. A most enjoyable feature of the evening was the violin trio by Misses McKee and Telford and Mr. Joe Clunghigliani and the violin solo by the latter, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. S. J. McGanghey.

Mr. John M. Foster, son of Mrs. Lizale W. Foster and Miss Bessie Schnell, of Nashville, Tennessee, were united in marriage last Thursday morning at ten o'clock at the home of the bride. For several years he has taught in one of the Southern schools being professor of manual training and mechanical drawing. The bride is a young lady of culture and possesses many personal charms. With a large circle of friends we extend congratulations.

Mrs. Dan Wallace was hostess of a beautifully appointed dinner on Tuesday evening at six o'clock. In the center of the table was a wicker basket filled with pink roses and asparagus, and surrounded by a soft bow of tulle. At each plate a crystal candlestick, tied with the same colors, pink, and containing a lighted taper was placed. Handpainted cards bearing the initials of the guests and also some personal characteristic, afforded much amusement as they were being seated. An elegant five course menu was served. The following guests were present: Messrs. Hansen and Dilling, Messdames J. R. Pates W. J. Grinstead, Gilbert Grinstead, J. W. Hamilton, George Goodloe, R. E. Turley, George Simmons, E. B. Pythian Films

At the Opera House last Tuesday night in addition to the regular program, the management had on exhibition some interesting films showing the Home of the Knights of Pythias at Lexington, Kentucky. In addition to this a quartette from the home composed of some handsome young ladies rendered some excellent vocal music consisting of duets, solos and quartettes. This feature was greatly enjoyed. "Daddy" Moore of the Home was in attendance and appeared on the stage. He was introduced by Mr. Frank Leslie Russell in a beautiful speech.

The evening netted to the Home about $50.00.

Richmond showed its appreciation of this home and the Pythian work by giving one of the largest audiences that has assembled there for many moons.

War on Cigarettes

Mrs. Luther Satterwhite, of this city, representing the W. C. T. Commencement at Eastern State Normal.

Beginning on Sunday evening, June the sixth, the Annual Commencement of the Eastern State Normal continued throughout the week, and possibly not in its history has a more splendid program been given. Monday was observed as Field and Class Day. Tuesday morning the presentation of elementary certificates and the same evening the Commencement Play, a most delightful one, was given in the Chapel. On Wednesday, the High School Commencement and fine address of Prof. Danxler of State University.

Thursday morning the Last Chapel Exercises were held, and Thursday evening, the Presidents Reception and Promenade Concert of which mention is made elsewhere in this issue. The Annual Commencement was held on the Campus on Friday morning at 10 o'clock at which time a scholarly and dignified address was given by Lieut. Governor E. J. McHenry.

One of the striking features of the occasion was the Academic Procession, the first given in this city, and which inaugurates an impressive custom observed at the higher institutions of the land. The President and faculty in caps and gowns bespeaking their various degrees, made a splendid showing as did also, the class of thirty-three graduates to whom Senator Brock presented diplomas. The Alumni Address was given by Mr. O. H. Harris of the class of 1913 and he did honor to the institution and class he represented. For the delightful music of the morning, the public is indebted to the Opera House Orchestra and the Mary Pattie Music Club.

QUESTION CLEARED UP.

Richmond People Can No Longer Doubt the Evidence.

Again and again we have read of strangers in distant towns who have been cured by this or that medicine. But Richmond's persistent question has always been "Has anyone here in Richmond been cured?" The word of a stranger living a hundred miles away may be true, but it cannot have the same weight with us as the word of our own citizens, whom we know and respect, and whose evidence we can so easily prove.

Mrs. J. H. Todd, 128 Big Hill Ave., Richmond, says: "I felt run down and in need of a kidney medicine. Doctor's Kidney Pills procured at Middleton's Drug Store, made me feel better and stronger in every way."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doctor's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Todd had. Foster-Milburn Company, Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—adv.

Two Trips to Richmond, Va.

FIRST TRIP.

In the month of March, 1865, 500 prisoners of Jno. Hunt Morgan's Command were marched out of Camp Douglas in Chicago, after having been thoroughly searched and everything valuable or any warm clothing taken from us. We were marched to the train to be taken to Richmond, Va., for exchange. We had been in prison 19 months, captured at Burlington Island. During the night after leaving Chicago the train running very fast, we met another train on the same track. I did not know what the matter was—but did know that I was flying over the back seats about as fast as our train was running. I soon found out that we had had what they called a "Collision" and they commenced talking about our train telephoning the other. That was a miserable night we spent. Several men were killed, and many seriously hurt. None of the prisoners were seriously hurt.

We finally crossed the Ohio river and there our trouble began. We had been in passenger cars, but they put us on stock trains on the B. & O. road at the river, and they put about as many of us in cars, as they would have a lot of hogs. I think about 40. This might have been a benefit to us, because we had but little clothing, and it was cold. So we just piled up on each other like a lot of hogs, and finally they unloaded us at Baltimore, formed us in line, and marched us down to Fort Mifflin. Going down to the Fort, I had the satisfaction of feeling that I was in Heaven, because on either side of the road stood the most beautiful ladies I had ever seen. I thought they were angels, they fed us and cheered us, and ever since that time in my prayers I have asked God to bless the Baltimore women. We stood in the mud ankle deep, without any fire, and it was the only night that I did not care whether I lived or died.

Next day they shipped us to Aiken's Landing on James River and there we were turned over to the Confederate Government on parole for 30 days. We walked to Richmond and were sent to Camp Lee and paid off in Confederate money. I immediately went up town and noticed a stand with corn bread on it. I gave $5 for a piece that would not weigh over three-fourths of a pound. I stayed in Va., until Lee surrendered, and then until Johnson surrendered. I made my way back to my home in Kentucky and was not yet 20 years old.

SECOND TRIP.

On Saturday, May 29th, 1915, James Cosby, J. C. Miller and your humble servant, all of Richmond, Ky., got on a C. & O. train at Winchester bound for Richmond, Va., to attend the great Confederate Reunion.

We tried to get Pullman sleepers, but they were all taken. We arrived at Richmond at 4 p. m., on the 30th. At the Union depot, a 5 passenger auto awaited us. We were driven to all the principal hotels in the city, but found all the good rooms taken. The principal hotels are the Richmond, Jefferson and Murphy. We were finally driven to 902 West Main St., an elegant private residence and spacious sleeping rooms with bath attached and the use of the parlor. After supper we were driven to Headquarters, where we were graciously received by Col. William B. Halderman, Capt. John H. Leathers, and Col. E. Polk Johnson. But best of all we met that magnificent lady Mrs. Wm. B. Halderman, who has been so kind and generous to the Confederate soldiers. Last but not least we met

Not For Men Only.

Foley Cathartic Tablets are not as insidiously demanded by women as by men because this particular cathartic is not so well known among women. Women suffer as much as men from indigestion and constipation, and they also require this scientific remedy to keep the stomach sweet, the liver active and the bowels regular. Foley's Cathartic Tablets are wholesome and thoroughly cleansing; do not gripe or cause nausea. Stout people say this is the one cathartic that takes away that over full and clogged-up feeling. L. E. LANE

Mrs. Francis Steele, of Woodford county, one the handsomest ladies I ever saw and when I looked into her eyes I imagined that Jno. C. Breckenridge was looking at me.

Richmond, Va., is a fine city with 175,000 inhabitants, fine broad streets, elegant hotels, substantial business houses. The people are generous and they treated us splendidly. We went to the principal monuments in the city. We stood before the great J. E. B. Stuart monument, mounted on a magnificent horse and could almost hear him sing, "At last you mighty glad to get out of the Wilderness." We stood before the splendid monument of Jeff Davis, and thought how could that man have iron riveted on the ankles of such a great, refined, christian gentleman. We stood before the monument of Gen. Robert E. Lee, I thought of one of sentences in his farewell address, "By the terms of agreement, officers and men can return to their homes and remain until exchanged. You will take with you the satisfaction that proceeds from the consciousness of duty faithfully performed and I earnestly pray that a merciful God will extend to you his blessing and protection."

As we stood before all these monuments, Lee's, Washington's, Jeff Davis', Stewart's and others, These lines occurred to me:

"Lives of great men all remind us
That we can make our lives sublime
And departing leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time;
Footprints that another
Sailing o'er life's solemn main
A forlorn and ship-wrecked brother
May take hope again."

As I stood in the Hotel Jefferson, named after the "Sage of Monticello," who had founded the University of Virginia, admiring the statue erected to his memory, I wondered if there were any Democrats like him in Kentucky—and no doubt there are many—but I couldn't think of but one—and that was Marse Henry Watterson of Louisville.

I feel that I am making this too long, so I will wind up by saying we arrived home safe and sound and I think the trip did us all good.

HIGH OFFICIALS TAKING TANLAC

Judges, Mayors and Prominent Business Men Try Premier Preparation.

Lexington, Ky., June 15.—"I have sold Tanlac since the beginning of its introduction in Lexington, to the Mayors of a number of cities, County Judges, Circuit Judges, and to many of the most prominent business men and professional men in Kentucky," said Wm. E. Stagg, the Lexington druggist.

"The demand for the preparation has been phenomenal. In all of my twenty years' experience in the drug business I have never seen anything to equal it."

"In addition to the Lexington demand, Tanlac has been shipped from my store to Kansas City, Mo., Colorado Springs, Colo., Denver, Colo., Memphis, Tenn., Meridian, Miss., Bonilla, S. D., Pittsburg, Pa., Jacksonville, Fla., Louisville, Ky., Tiffin, O., Columbia, Tenn., Palm Beach, Fla., Phoenix, Ariz., Los Angeles, Cal., and many other points too numerous to mention. You may rest assured that every city in Kentucky also has heard of Tanlac."

"I can only account for the great demand for the preparation by the fact it is a good medicine. That is proved by the numerous statements from those who have tested the medicine and are now convinced of its excellent merits. The public has evidently not been slow to appreciate the Tanlac merit."

"Practically $20,000.00 worth of Tanlac has been sold and distributed through my store within the past few weeks. Such a demand is most certainly unprecedented."

"My associations with Mr. Cooper and the agency for Tanlac has been very pleasant. I therefore take pleasure in commending Mr. Cooper and his very excellent preparation."

Tanlac, the premier preparation, on sale in Richmond at H. L. Perry's drug store, where it is being introduced here. adv.

Watch Your Wife.

Keep your eyes on your wife.
Not to keep some other man from stealing her—for wives worth having are not stealable.

But keep her contented, for that will help you to keep cheerful.
And to keep her cheerful—for that will keep her pretty.

To keep her pretty is to help yourself keep your eyes off other women, a very necessary thing for a married man if he would be happy.
Keep in mind the girl you led to the altar—for your wife is that girl; just as good, just as lovable, just as sincere, just as honest.
Keep in mind also that you were ready to do almost anything to get her—and so you are reminded that it's up to you to make some little sacrifice in order to keep her.

Just keep your eye on your wife and do your share toward making a success of your greatest business undertaking, the business of being a happy married man.

In Memory of Miss Ethel Williams

On June 1, 1915, immortality snatched from the iron grip of death, and the voice of angels fell in sweetest cadence upon the soul of Miss Ethel Williams; young in years, but full of glory she has passed to the utmost bounds of the everlasting hills.

God loaned this sweet pure life for 25 years and its sudden departure, is only a link that binds his love ones "Nearer My God to Thee" She was a good Christian. How sweet when our loved ones have gone that they are where no pain or sorrow will ever be. She has left the home vacant and many broken hearts, but she has gone to fill a vacant place in the Father's home not made with hands. "In my Father's house there are many mansions" and we believe she is now enjoying that blessing.

She leaves a mother and father, one brother, four sisters and a host of friends to mourn her departure. Blessed be the dead that die in the Lord! May our Christ comfort the loved ones left behind and help each one of them to continue faithful until Jesus says "Come up Hither."

The funeral service was conducted at the grave, by Dr. E. C. McDougle, after which she was laid to rest in the Richmond cemetery.
The resurrection glory now is hers, The crown upon her brow,
With heaven's white robes, blood-washed through,
She sings redemption's glorious song, We would not call thee back again,
But, oh, thy bliss we long to share, And by thy grace we'll meet thee there.

Father's Gun Prevails In Family Fight

Attacked by Two Drunken Sons
He Kills One and Wounds
the Other.

Hawesville, Ky., June 7.—A. H. Adkins, a farmer's wife west of Hawesville, killed his son, Frank Adkins, and probably fatally wounded his son, Will Adkins, Sunday afternoon. Mr. Adkins notified the Sheriff's office and he was placed under guard at his home until a Coroner's jury investigated the case. He was then released on his own bond.

Neither of the sons lived with their parents. They were visiting on the elder Adkins' farm, and just before leaving became involved in a dispute over the custody of Will Adkins' eight-year-old son, who had been reared by his grandparents.

The father is said to have gone to the house, seized a pistol, and followed by his sons armed with a hoe and a knife, taken refuge in an orchard. The sons are said to have attacked their parent, who shot to save his life. The elder Adkins says that his sons were under the influence of liquor and he had previously told them to leave and not return in that condition.

Will Adkins fell first with a bullet through his abdomen, and a moment later Frank was pierced by three shots, two in the chest and one in the hand. Frank died in a few minutes. Surgeons from Hawesville operated on Will, the younger son, but his condition this morning is critical.

Frank was thirty-five years old and leaves his widow and seven children. Will is thirty-two years old and has a wife and one child, the boy over whom the quarrel started.

COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst."

I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework.

I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off.

I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.

After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.

I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."

Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the woman's constitution.

Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.
